

COUNTERMEASURES 2.0: Protecting the Protectors

October 25-26, 2012

Rosen Center, Orlando, Florida

Goals:

- Develop a two and five year agenda for protecting emergency services
- Prioritize the contents of an emergency services medkit
- Confirm the vaccination schedule for emergency services
- Collect national level practices for distributing stockpiles and critical drugs to emergency services

October 25

630 - 800p Cocktail Reception. All those registered for Countermeasures 2.0 are invited.

October 26

800a Breakfast

830a

Keynote

The Honorable Gus Bilirakis
Chairman, Subcommittee on Emergency Preparedness, Response, and Communications
Committee on Homeland Security, U.S. House of Representatives

845a

The Current Threat Environment

Charles (Sam) Faddis (retired CIA officer in the National Counterterrorism Center)

945a

Break

1015a

Achieving a Fully-Vaccinated Workforce

Phred Pilkington (National Association of County and City Health Officers)
Nathalie Charland (Medicago)
Claire Hannan (Association of Immunization Managers)
Richard McNelis (Florida Department of Health)
Wayne Williams (Cold Chain)

1145a

Lunch

100p

Critical Drug Shortages

Jim Blumenstock (Association of State and Territorial Health Officials)
Dave Duncan (CalStar)
John Sinclair (International Association of Fire Chiefs)

200p

Protecting Families

Mark Landahl (National Sheriffs Association)
Matt Minson (Texas A&M)
Jude Plessas (U.S. Post Office)

315p

Wrap-up

330p

Meeting End